Affiliate Libraries

FamilySearch affiliate libraries extend FamilySearch services to millions of visitors worldwide. Among other valuable resources, affiliate libraries offer access to exclusive onsite genealogical record collections.

You Can Find an Affiliate

in places like public or higher education libraries, archives, museums, cultural centers, or genealogical or historical societies.

Services available at affiliate libraries vary.

Typical offerings include:

Special access to historical records not available online.

Personalized research assistance from trained staff.

Family history training classes.

Contact your local affiliate library to learn what is available before you visit.
